Constance Lémuria Wine Selection

The cellar book you are about to flick offers more than 900 references and some 12,000 bottles from 15 different countries.

The love of good wine is part of the DNA of Constance Hotels & Resorts, and we are proud to share with you this passion ... devouring!

Jerome Faure, the Chief Sommelier of the famous group, developed for over ten years an extraordinary network of winemakers, sommeliers and traders, with one goal in mind: to offer the best and fullest possible selection in the Seychelles.

Browsing vineyards and wine fairs around the world, Jerome Faure carries the bulk of purchases directly with producers and is responsible for delivering the wine to Praslin refrigerated container.

Be guided by our Head Sommelier Nash and his team, who will direct you to the best choices according to your mood and expectations.
Good tasting!

Some practical information:

Our red wines are served cooler than in Europe, in order to offset the effects of the outside temperature.

The wine prices are certainly higher than in Europe, and may possibly surprise you, even if we practice similar ratios to the rest of the industry. Rates include indeed many government taxes and significant logistics costs.

Rosé Wine (15 cl) France

Coteaux d'Aix-en-Provence, Chateau Revelette Rose 2014 105

Definitely not a simple, quaffing "pink" wine, the color is rose-gold, like polished copper in candlelight, with flashes of bright vermillion. In the glass, the wine unfurls discreetly with wild strawberries, ripe apricot skin, and fresh white flowers. The palate is vibrant and supple, and unusually dense, with fine layers of mineral-infused red berries, bracketed with bright, fresh fruit acidity.

Red Wine (15 cl) South Africa

De Toren, Fusion V 2012 220

"Soft as spun silk, with a lingering hint of sweet fruit on the back of the palate, this is a wine that will only improve with age. Complex flavours of liquorice, black cherry cedar and dark berries, it offers a stylish departure for sophisticated oenophilic tastes.

France

Duché d'Uzès Orenia Rouge 2013 105

"A youthful punch of red and black fruits on the nose with a delightfully savoury touch of black olive. That continues on the harmonious and well weighted palate. A youthful, solid and delicious wine.

Saumur-Champigny, Domaine. Roches Neuves 2014 120

Vibrant colour, silky tannins and lots of red cherry, redcurrant and raspberry fruit with floral, herby notes. Just a hint of Saumur's signature earthy character showing through too.

Champagne (15 cl)

Deutz Brut Classic N/V 345

Providing a perfect balance between finesse and power, it draws out flavours of dark chocolate, cinnamon and roasted yellow figs, expressing its subtle and melt-in-the-mouth vinosity.

White Wine (12 cl)

France

Burgundy Auxey Duresses Deux Montille 2011 240

Fresh ripe and lively offering a melange of apples, pears and white peaches with a lemony splash, white flowers and stoney minerality.

South Africa

Swartland, David Sadie Chenin Blanc 2015 215

On the nose, a slight note of reduction before citrus and white peach plus some leesy character. The palate is rich and full.

Swartland, Trizanne Signature Wines, Sauvignon Blanc 110

Vibrant and fresh nose of crushed rock, ripe pear and yellow gooseberry. Quite energetic on the palate which builds and has more profundity than one may first realise.

Dessert Wine (8 cl)

South Afca

Stellenbosch, Keermont, 'Fleurfontein' 2014 (375ml) 180

Pure gold in colour, the 2014 Fleurfontein has subtle complex aromas of dried apricot and citrus rind with hints of vanilla. The palate is rich and full, but is defined by a central core of fresh acidity. This balances the sweetness and layers of fresh fruit and lees allowing the wine to finish neatly with a lingering zing. Drink now through 2030.

France

Languedoc Roussillon, Maury, 'Vintage', Mas Amiel 2010 160

Typical excusite Black Grenache. Deep ruby with bouquet of red and black berry. More-ish flavors on the palate, very elegant burlat cherry." Linguring round and smashy filled with a lot of dark red fruits, perfect component for dark fruits desserts and chocolate.

Languedoc Roussillon, Maury, 'Vintage', Mas Amiel 1980 290

1980 was a great vintage for Mas Amiel. The wine has a surprising freshness and is beautifully balanced. An aged wine with a powerful nose and mature flavours.Great Pairing with CIGARS

...Provence & Languedoc-Roussillon...

Until the late 80s, the wines of Languedoc-Roussillon & Provence were mostly rustic, roasted, with no interest. But wine production in this sun-drenched, crescent-shaped region hugging the Mediterranean from the Maritime Alps, passing through the Rhone delta to the Spanish border has undergone a sea change in recent years. Today the Languedoc-Roussillon & Provence offers riper & textured red & white wine.

...South West...

Southwest France is a lush, hilly wine region that occupies the corner bordered by the Atlantic Ocean on the west, and Spain and the Pyrenees Mountains on the south. The region is home to a string of more than two dozen winemaking appellations whose producers are united by a passion for place. Some of the world's great grape varieties originated here and many of the area's lesser-known varieties are grown nowhere else.

...New Zealand...

New Zealand is a small wine producer but the quality is considered amongst the highest in the world. Famous for the unique, gooseberry scented Sauvignon Blancs from Marlborough, it also produces fine Pinot Noirs from Otago and Martinborough, Merlots and Cabernets from Hawkes Bay and Chardonnay from Gisbourne.

Argentina

The Argentine wine industry is the fifth largest producer of wine in the world.[2] Argentine wine, as with some aspects of Argentine cuisine, has its roots in Spain. During the Spanish colonization of the Americas, vine cuttings were brought to Santiago del Estero in 1557, and the cultivation of the grape and wine production stretched first to neighboring regions, and then to other parts of the country.

ROMANÉE-CONTI

'Domaine de la Romanée-Conti', often abbreviated to DRC, is an estate in Burgundy, France that produces white and red wine. It is widely considered among the world's greatest wine producers, and DRC bottles are among the world's most expensive. It takes its name from the domaine's most famous vineyard, Romanée-Conti.

Romanée-Conti has been called "one of the greatest wines of the world and the most perfect as well as the most expensive of Burgundy ... with a forceful bouquet of violet mixed with a scent of cherry, a lively and profound ruby robe, a suaveness of exceptional finesse. The wine has been highly regarded for centuries. In 1780, the Archbishop of Paris declared it "velvet and satin in bottles."

...Provence & Languedoc-Roussillon...

Until the late 80s, the wines of Languedoc-Roussillon & Provence were mostly rustic, roasted, with no interest. But wine production in this sun-drenched, crescent-shaped region hugging the Mediterranean from the Maritime Alps, passing through the Rhone delta to the Spanish border has undergone a sea change in recent years. Today the Languedoc-Roussillon & Provence offers riper & textured red & white wine.

...South Africa...

Before the last 10 years South African Wines barely crested the bottom of the grocery store shelf. Most of the wine produced in the country went directly to be distilled into brandy. Today the story is changing. South African wines have emerged as both some of the best valued red and white wines and in the highest quality.

...New Zealand...

New Zealand is a small wine producer but the quality is considered amongst the highest in the world. Famous for the unique, gooseberry scented Sauvignon Blancs from Marlborough, it also produces fine Pinot Noirs from Otago and Martinborough, Merlots and Cabernets from Hawkes Bay and Chardonnay from Gisbourne.

...SAKE & SHOCHU...

"Sake is a traditional Japanese drink that is made from fermented rice. It has been consumed and used for religious ceremonies for over 2000 years now.

In fact, a study of Japanese history would be incomplete without the study of Sake history. The drink is mentioned in the 'Kojiki', which is the first written and recorded history of the country. Japan is a country known for its customs and traditions, and sake, a traditional drink also involves traditions and customs."

"Shochu is a single-distillation that combines the light clarity of barley with a fine aroma. The natural mildness of barley shochu is further enhanced

With three years of quiet aging".
